Celebrating Our Wonderful Nurses

Share your gratitude.
Celebrate National
Nurses Week MAY 6-12

“Nurse: Just another word to describe a person strong enough to tolerate anything and soft enough to understand anyone.”
-Unknown

Happy National Nurses Week! Nurses are healers, advocates, and supporters. At Arroyo Grande Community Hospital Foundation, we recognize our nurses as Guardian Angels.

If you would like to honor a nurse that has provided exceptional care for you or your loved ones, you can thank them by making a gift in their name. Your nurse will receive a card informing them of your thoughtful gift in their honor along with a Guardian Angel lapel pin that they can wear with pride. They will also receive special recognition in our employee newsletter and on our website.
